

KATHERINE FIRST & KITCHEN PARTY

Katherine First & Kitchen Party create a Cape Breton, festive atmosphere just like the good old times up north in your favorite family kitchen. The instrumentation is fiddle, banjo, guitar and percussion. All band members sing and audience participation is encouraged. In fact, Katherine frequently brings a young fiddler or two on stage to join in the musical festivities. This band brings to you a blending of traditional music from Ireland, Scotland, Nova Scotia, Brittany France and beyond. They also play old timey, bluegrass, Americana and band originals. Their most recent CD entitled, "A Moment In Time," was just released in December 2017. Their CD release party was a sold out show at the Parlor Room in Northampton.
